

This squadron (10th Security Police Squadron) was filled with the greatest group of people in any grade, and their accomplishments and honors are testimony to their professionalism.

I was just fortunate to have been the commander.